54 - Coincidence

1

Neil : A strange coincidence? Well, yes. I, I married my distant cousin.

2

Dawn : When I was younger, I went away on a family trip, and my cousin and I had the same exact dream the same night. We woke up in the morning and explained it to each other in detail, and it was very, very strange.

3

Sue : I, I thought I knew where my sister was, and it turned out that I did know where she was.

4

Tracy : The way we met again. That's, that was strange. We grew up together, and we ended up working in the same place; we hadn't seen each other in, like, how many years?

Jessica : Like, five, six years. We were apart. And then she ended up; we just ended up at the same place.

5

Maureen : I'm exactly a year, a month, and a day older than he is.

6

Richard : I met an old friend from New York in St Louis, Missouri.

7

Walter : While I was working, I met a guy that had a daughter named Amanda, that had a birthday the same day as she did, went to dancing-school like she did, er, had the same middle name as she did, and I had never met the guy before in my life.

8

Clara : I was born on Friday the thirteenth, under a full moon.

9

Ann : I had a dream my sister was going to have a baby, and the next day we, I got up, and she told us she was pregnant.

10

Greg : I had a dream that I would fail my mid-term, and I failed it. That, that's pretty strange, yeah.

Interviewer : Was it a very vivid dream?

Greg : Yeah, I saw a big F on the paper, and when I got it back there was a big red F on the paper, so -
